PHIL BLAIR, CEO OF MANPOWER, SAN DIEGO: JOB WON! WORKSHOP

Starting out or starting over - Phil Blair, CEO of Manpower SD, knows what you need to do to better your career, find a job or pursue your profession with passion.

"One of the most unfortunate things about the current job market is not that unemployment is still high at 7.3% but that so many people are either unhappy with their current job or are confused about where they fit into the current job market. When I meet with them they say they are here to talk about getting a job and when I ask what kind of work they are looking for their answer is "I don't know"."

"Ideal Job to Career Paths" is meant to show job seekers how to work through a process that will enable them to have clear success paths to careers they can be excited about. Attendees should leave with the training to enable them to manage both their career search and their career paths. Reading "Job Won!" will give you an excellent foundation for this training session.

Phil Blair is among San Diego's most visible and respected business leaders. He is an oft-quoted employment commentator, appearing in local and national business media – print, broadcast and Internet. Blair is a professional speaker on employment and workforce transition issues and is the author of Strategies for Success, a career resource guide. His own transition – to online media – has been smooth with publication of his blog, Job-Won.com.

"Once you are aware of the changes coming your way you will be better equipped to apply the practices in this book to make sure you are the talent-filled individual that companies crave ... And you will be the one who gets to say 'Job Won!'" - Phil Blair
